!!! It's an item that affects enemies in this game. It causes them to vomit, or if not they tend to get really annoying dreams. Also if you spank them they get mad, and will go after you with a nail gun, or the like. It takes only one item to become evil, and is strong, so, don't waste time trying to keep your stats up. Every evil item has two actions associated with it: Cursed Cursed is good for levels 14-16. An evil item can only be bad for one level. This means that you can only have one evil item in your inventory at a time. The Evil is only good for not more than 20 levels. Also I have no idea how this works in terms of reducing your stats, as in, how much of it will reduce them. Just how to you plan on beating this game? I will be using the Sniper Rifle, and then this, because I have the slotted weapon and a Sniper Rifle. Also I have a utility gun, like the Gatling Gun, or the Cannon, so that will help out. Without the NPC interaction, what is there to do? There is a small village, but they are not organized. I don't know how many people this is for, but if you have any questions, please ask. If you are running the game in windowed mode, try using the fullscreen option. Here is the description of the evil item: The Cursed one is one of the many items in the Game which are strong and evil, and when used are a life saver. This one is very special, though, because of the amount of good it does for your life, but the evil it does to your statues. This item puts curses on your enemies, that can be good and bad, and it can be any type of curse. They are called, Cursed. These are the only curses that will cause your enemies to vomit. I think I will use this item a lot. The Cursed one causes your enemies to vomit when they attack you. If you are fighting it is the most powerful item in this game. This will cause the enemy to die, but will also cause the enemy to have 82157476af
